Hassle-free booking

in 4 steps

Organising a family holiday is a huge responsibility, so a helping hand never goes amiss! Follow our guide, we know exactly what we're doing!

→ STEP 1

Picture yourself there

OUR N°1 TIP: DOWNLOAD THE SUNÊLIA APPLICATION. All our campsites are listed. You'll find the events & activities programme, pool complex opening hours, the restaurant menu, campsite map and lots more useful information. You can even work out your travel route. You're almost there!

OUR N°2 TIP: GET INSPIRED

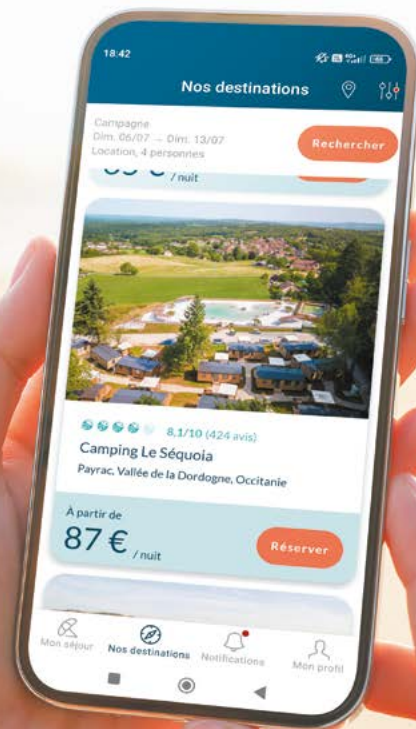

Holidays are meant to be shared, whether via social media, bookshops or search engines. Explore Sunêlia's holiday diaries and find inspiration for your next holiday.

→ STEP 2

Discuss what you (really) want

They say communication is key. Holidays are no exception to the rule. Start by discussing things with your fellow travellers. The right questions to ask:

- ✓ What's the aim of this holiday? Some want to rest and relax. Others want to have fun and let off steam. And then there are those who look forward to being together and sharing good times...it's up to you.
- ✓ What's your ideal setting? If the only thing that calms you is the sound of waves, then head for the shore. If you're aiming for the heights, the mountains await you. If your idea of happiness is waking to the sweet sound of birdsong, the countryside is the place for you. So, make a list of all the options!
- ✓ Who are you holidaying with? With the whole family, your soulmate, a group of friends, granny & granddad, and Rover? Your needs will differ, from the number of rooms, to a nearby pool, a pedestrian district, and so on.

→ STEP 3

Choose your home sweet home

Now that you've decided on the destination and the lucky ones who will come with you, it's time to think about accommodation. You need to feel at home, but with an extra touch.

- ✓ How many rooms do you need?
- ✓ What facilities do you expect?
- ✓ Is air-conditioning a negotiable factor?
- ✓ Are you looking for an extra-large pitch for your camper van?

Tick your priority criteria and forget the superfluous details.

→ STEP 4

Focus on the smaller details

Small details can make all the difference to a hassle-free holiday, so don't overlook them. Insurance, first and foremost. The unexpected can happen, so ensure your peace of mind with cancellation insurance.

- ✓ If you're travelling with the family, make sure you'll have all the equipment you need. With Sunélia, you can book a cot, high chair or baby bath in advance.
- ✓ If your four-legged friend is coming with you, check its vaccinations are up to date.

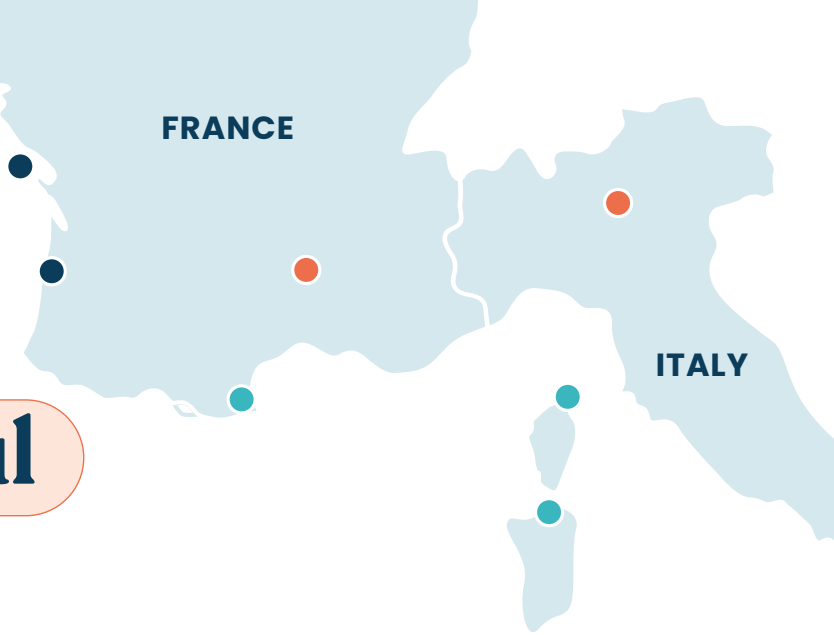

Lastly, review all your options: a second vehicle, house-cleaning at the end of your stay, bed linen, etc., and design your dream holiday.

So you don't discover you've forgotten your swimsuit (a true holiday nightmare) once you arrive. The must-have checklist:

- ✓ Swimsuit
- ✓ Sun screen
- ✓ Sunglasses
- ✓ A good book
- ✓ Oh! And all your ID papers.

The rest is just accessory.

Roots and stars

When nature takes to the stage

Nature is magical. It offers us spectacular performances, sometimes unsettling, but always filled with emotion. It's worth the journey, no doubt about it.

BALLET IN PINK

The sun shines brightly as of spring here. A UNESCO-listed Biosphere Reserve, Camargue, on the Mediterranean coast, is fiercely protective of its marshlands and lagoons. Why? This area is home to a fabulous diversity of wildlife. The pink flamingo, the undisputed star, takes centre stage with its spellbinding courtship display. Arabesques and aerial feats in a taffeta of feathers.

✓ WHERE?

Le Clos du Rhône campsite in Saintes-Maries-de-la-Mer and Les Jardins de Tivoli, Grau-du-Roi.

THE BEST TIME TO GO?

From April to May.

BASK IN BLOOMS OF PURPLE

Provence. If Provence was a painting, it would be in purple. From Sisteron to Manosque and the turquoise waters of the Durance, nature is a palette of mauves here. The blossoming lavender fields, a highlight of the year. This tiny branch manages to redesign the landscape and wrap it in a unique fragrance.

✓ WHERE?

L'Hippocampe campsite in Volonne.

THE BEST TIME TO GO?

From June to July.

THE ENCHANTMENT OF THE NIGHT SKY

Once night falls, the Dordogne Valley reveals one of its secrets. To discover that secret, raise your head to the skies, open your eyes wide and breathe in deeply. The Triangle Noir du Quercy is a spectacle to behold at dusk, with thousands of stars in a celestial vault criss-crossed with other shooting stars.

✓ WHERE?

Le Séquoia campsite in Payrac.

THE BEST TIME TO GO?

From August to September.

Sunêlia L'Hippocampe

Back to roots

What if your toes in the earth was the way to happiness? At Sunêlia, we firmly believe that there's an unrivalled joy to be had from watching poppies grow or cycling through vineyard fields. Here are few suggestions:

AN INITIATION IN PERMACULTURE

Don your straw hat, and meet us on the Mediterranean shore.

- ✓ WHERE?
Two hectares are devoted to permaculture at Les Sablons campsite. Seed bomb, kokedama and planting workshops and more. This area even supplies the restaurant.

GET INTO FISHING

In the Loire Valley, magnificent castles blend harmoniously into the peaceful backdrop of lakes and ponds.

- ✓ WHERE?
At L'Étang de Sologne campsite, the trees are reflected in mirror-like waters. A fishing rod, a touch of meditation, and you're there. That's what true peace is.

CONNECTING WITH THE LAND

In France, the land, the terroir, has a taste.

- ✓ WHERE?
Ma Prairie campsite is your chance to taste the terroir of the Pyrénées-Orientales. To really understand terroir, go wine tasting. Set off on your bike across the vineyards, with a detour via the beach.

ADAPT TO THE ELEMENTS

It's a short step from the deep waters of Sarrans Lake to the roasting furnaces of the Laguiole knife forge. The Aveyron region is home to a vibrant craft industry, thanks to the skilful use of its natural resources.

- ✓ WHERE?
La Source campsite, on the banks of the lake, is an immersion in these elements.

Sport mode activated

Being closer to nature brings oxygen to your body and clears your mind. It's the perfect time to experience new sensations. And what better way than through sport?

Here's a scientific fact: did you know that sea air is richer in oxygen and contains less pollution and fewer particles? In a word, it's purer.
